Do we realize that what’s behind these apparently simple actions is this history of God's preference for us? [...] Without the awareness of this gaze and its predilection for me and for you, there is no Christmas! We would be left with an empty ritual, like the many things we do that bring us no joy.

Have we realised the preference of God for us in this period?

Join our discussion on this topic

Saturday 23\textsuperscript{th} January, 3pm
Glassroom, Edinburgh Napier University
10 Colinton Road, Edinburgh, EH10 5DT